

Basic Guidelines for Value Education

Some basic guidelines are given below to be understand as a course on value education:-

- Universal:- Whatever we study as value education should be universally applicable to all individual. It does not depend on caste, creed, culture, gender, race or religion. This is why it is universal.
- Rational:- It should appeal to human reasoning and not based on blind beliefs, faith or dogmas. It is completely rational.
- Leading To Harmony:- Its lead a human being what harmony is.How one can acquire harmony at his own level as well as for the society.
- All-encompassing:- Value education aims in transforming our consciousness and living. It need to cover all aspects of human living i.e. behavior, work and realization and all levels i.e. family, society, individual and nature. Because academic life and life are correlated, but there are so many things which happens only in our life. We need to understand it. Sometimes verify it, and at last we realize it.
- Natural and verifiable:- When we line on basis of human values that are natural to use there are every provision in Nature for its fulfillment, leads to our happiness and also it becomes easy to interact with one another as well as with Nature.

Reference Books:

1. Srivastava,Smriti; Human Values and Professional Ethics; S.K.Kataria& Son Books, New Delhi;2010-11
2. Gupta,Y.K.; A foundational course in Human Values and Professional Ethics;Shubham Publications, New Delhi; 2010